DETAILED ACTION

1. Applicant's election without traverse of invention I of claims 1-7 and 10-20 in the reply filed on February 03, 2006 is acknowledged.
2. Claims 8 and 9 are withdrawn from further consideration pursuant to 37 CFR 1.142(b) as being drawn to a nonelected invention, there being no allowable generic or linking claim. Election was made without traverse in the reply filed on February 03, 2006.

Information Disclosure Statement

3. The listing of references in the specification is not a proper information disclosure statement. 37 CFR 1.98(b) requires a list of all patents, publications, or other information submitted for consideration by the Office, and MPEP § 609.04(a) states, "the list may not be incorporated into the specification but must be submitted in a separate paper." Therefore, unless the references have been cited by the examiner on form PTO-892, they have not been considered.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

4. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

5. Claims 10-11 and 14-15 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Coates (4,566,130). Coates '130 discloses a diaper changing kit (carrying bag 10), comprising: a container having two enclosures, each said enclosure including its own closures, one of said enclosures being contained within the other of said enclosures (one enclosure formed by folding end section 16 upwardly along line 20 on to middle section 14 and then folding the center section along line 18 into end section 12 (Figure 1C) which is maintained closed by snap fasteners 24, and the second enclosure is plastic pouch 44 that is sealable by Velcro), said one enclosure containing a diaper, and said other of said enclosures containing baby changing accessories. See Figures 1-4D and column 4, lines 37-50.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

6. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

7. The factual inquiries set forth in Graham v. John Deere Co., 383 U.S. 1, 148 USPQ 459 (1966), that are applied for establishing a background for determining obviousness under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) are summarized as follows:

1. Determining the scope and contents of the prior art.
2. Ascertaining the differences between the prior art and the claims at issue.
3. Resolving the level of ordinary skill in the pertinent art.
4. Considering objective evidence present in the application indicating obviousness or nonobviousness.

8. Claims 12 and 13 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Coates '130. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to make the enclosures from one piece of material, since it has been held that forming in one piece an article which has formerly been formed in two pieces and put together involves only routine skill in the art. Howard v. Detroit Stove Works, 150 U.S. 164 (1893).

Allowable Subject Matter

9. Claim 1-7 and 16-20 are allowed.

Conclusion

10. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Shown are containers analogous to applicant's instant invention.
